EXTRA.
TERRIFIER AGAIN.
Beats Picknicker and Pick-pocket in the Fourth Race at Linden.

WEINBERG WINS THE FIRST.
Herald Gets the Second, Speculation the Third, Foxhound the Fifth.

RACE TRACK, LINDEN PARK, Oct. 24.—The weather was decidedly "summery" at Linden today. The prediction that freezing weather would arrive to-morrow was scoffed at, but those who wore heavy coats and wraps wished that a small instalment would come along this afternoon.

The track was still very heavy, but the several spots in it indicated a good track to-morrow.

The attendance was up to the average and the betting was brisk.

The card promised well, and very few scratches were made.

The opening event was a dash for two-year-olds. Discount and Weinberg were the choices, being played to the exclusion of the others. Discount closed a slight favorite.

Discount was easily beaten by Weinberg. The latter fairly revelled in the going, while Discount did not seem able to extend himself. Weinberg led all the way, and won handily.

Bowers had a terrific struggle with the Faustina colt for third money, and just staggered in a head in front.

The second race was a puzzle to the bookies. They served integrity and honesty as an excuse for not making a selection. There was no demand, and the race proceeded to 4 to 1 and 1 to 2 respectively. The colt was well played. Nearly every horse in the race carried money.

Clio colt went out in front after a mile was done. Sims then brought up Herald, and taking the lead won easily. Marshall beat Treasure out for the place.

Speculation was a heavily backed favorite in this race, and was easily won. He and Kirkover rushed away in front of the field, and for a time he looked like the winner. Speculation caught him half a mile from the wire, and won easily. Kirkover beat Kildeer fifteen lengths for the place.

THIRD RACE.
Purse $500, for all ages; selling allowance; one mile.
